By Air

Boston is served by Logan International Airport. Taxi stands are located outside of most baggage claim areas. You can also board an airport bus to the Airport MBTA station located on the Blue Line, part of Boston's subway system. To get to Northeastern take the Blue Line inbound to Government Center. Walk upstairs to the Green Line. Take an "E" train outbound to the Northeastern stop.

By Train/Bus

Boston is serviced by Amtrak, major bus lines such as Greyhound, Peter Pan, and Bonanza, and local MBTA bus and commuter train service. All lines come into South Station. From there take the Red Line Inbound to Park Street and transfer to the Green Line Westbound. Follow the directions below for "By Public Transportation."

By Public Transportation

Northeastern University is conveniently located on Huntington Avenue two blocks from the corner of Massachusetts Avenue. The campus is accessible by "T" from the Green Line (take an "E" train outbound toward Heath Street; get off at the Northeastern stop, which is the first stop above ground) and from the Orange Line (take any train going outbound to Forest Hills; get off at the Ruggles Station).

Commuter rail lines connect with the Orange Line at Back Bay Station, Ruggles Station, and North Station.
